Local 47 Lifetime Achievement Awards

On April 24, 2017, AFM Local 47 members gathered with family and friends to celebrate five amazing musicians. The following is an excerpt of my talk to the 200 plus that joined us:

“Friends and esteemed guests, tonight we celebrate the heart and soul of Local 47 our members. Without our rank-and-file musicians there would be no union.

“Our union was chartered in 1897 by musicians who came to Los Angeles in its infant years, plying their craft but fighting for dignity and fair compensation on the job. It’s funny how some things never change.... But this year we celebrate Local 47’s 120th anniversary, and what better way to celebrate our union’s history than by acknowledging our own.

“The Local 47 Lifetime Achievement Awards was created to recognize the creative contributions of outstanding artistic significance to the field of recording, live performance and music preparation. And today I am honored to join with our VP Baptist, Secretary/Treasurer Lasley, the Local 47 executive board, members and guests to recognize five amazing musicians, presenting them with the Local 47 Lifetime achievement award.”

What an amazing evening! I want to congratulate all of our honorees: Vincent DeRosa, Carol Kaye, Dick Nash, Louise DiTullio and Gene Cipriano, and all of you who came out to join us. Read more about it and view the photo gallery here.

Protect Your Health!

During the last few months I seemed to encounter many of you suffering from repetitive motion injuries and/or a variety of chronic health concerns that impact your ability to work and earn a living. Some of you are fortunate enough to have favorable sick-leave provisions in your agreements, good union health coverage and strong support systems at home. Some of you are not as fortunate. Lacking affordable healthcare and unprotected by state or collectively bargained sick-leave benefits, many members lack the basic safety net of health coverage and stable housing. However, there is help. As a member of Local 47 you have access to benefits provided by The Actors Fund, the Local 47 Relief Fund, the Music Fund of LA, MusiCares, the California Jazz Foundation, and AFL-CIO Community Services. Benefits vary from organization to organization, but ultimately if you need emergency housing, healthcare, mental health services or financial help, the union has a network of partners that are here to help. Please share this information with your colleagues, union or not, and ensure that no one slips through the cracks. No musician should be left behind. For more information go to the Local 47 website at afm47.org/benefits or call our Benefits Coordinator Rimona Seay at 323-993-3159.

In Unity,

John Acosta

Vice President Rick Baptist

On Monday night, April 24, our union hosted the first annual Life Achievement Awards in our auditorium. It was attended by 215 musicians, friends and guests. The excitement in the room when the honorees came in and sat on the stage was electric. Those honorees are Gene “Cip” Cipriano, Louise DiTullio, Dick Nash, Carol Kaye and Vince DeRosa. John Acosta opened the ceremony by saying, “Ladies and gentlemen, your honorees,” which was followed by a five-minute standing ovation. It truly was a goosebumps inducing moment. John then introduced City Councilmember Mitch O’Farrell.

I had the honor to emcee the awards. Our first honoree was “Yo Cip,” Gene Cipriano. We chose to have the great Dan Higgins speak and then introduce Cip. Dan, as I knew he would be, was fantastic. Cip was thrilled with the award and spoke about how honored he was for this award. Aside from the life achievement awards, the City of Los Angeles honored each recipient with a certificate of recognition. Everyone here wants to thank City Councilmember Paul Koretz for that wonderful surprise and honor.

The next honoree was Louise DiTullio, we had studio giant Gayle Levant speak and introduce Louise. Louise was beaming at the honor and spoke with much heart.

Next honoree was Dick Nash, we brought in Alan Kaplan to honor Dick. I felt guilty about limiting our speakers to only seven or eight minutes. That is like trying to summarize the novel “War and Peace” in seven minutes — but all our speakers did a great job.

Next up was Carol Kaye, and to do the honor was the fantastic Chuck Berghofer. Chuck related a story about he and Carol playing on the Nancy Sinatra recording of “These Boots Are Made For Walkin’.” Chuck was the one who came up with the sliding down the next neck sound that is the famous hook for the record, and Carol was playing Fender bass on the session as well. That was a surprise to all of us in attendance.

Last but certainly not least was “The King” Vince DeRosa. Vince, at almost 97 years young, was so touched at the accolades that our speaker Annie Bosler related to the audience. We chose Annie because she was the director of the fantastic documentary “1M1-Hollywood Horns of the Golden Years.”

I again want to thank everyone that came to our very first awards program and to thank everyone behind the scenes that help to make our award show such a huge success. We promise to do many more to honor our amazing musicians.

I would also like to thank Barbra Porter for taking new photos of your titled officers for our column photos. You can imagine how long and hard she took to make us look presentable. I highly recommend that if any of my fellow musicians need head shots or promo photos taken call Barbara at 818-347-9472. She is a genius.

Live, Laugh and Love.

Rick Baptist

Secretary/Treasurer Gary Lasley

Spring cleaning is well underway here at Local 47. In the financial office, and down stairs in the archives, dozens and dozens of boxes of old files are stacked in the isles waiting to be moved, as staff members clean out their offices in anticipation of our upcoming move to Burbank. On that end, union workers are busy removing flooring tile, carpeting, light fixtures, and drop ceilings and making preparations to begin the renovations for phase 1, the financial office and rehearsal rooms. We are working with an acoustician to ensure that they completely soundproof. After we are finished moving in we will begin phase 2 of the renovation, construction of a 4,000 square foot auditorium and work on the building exterior. Stay tuned...

The audited financial statements for 2016 are here, courtesy of Bernard Kotkin & Company, our certified public accountants. The good news is 2016 was great year. We had a net income of over $81,000. The entire report will be published in the Summer edition of the Overture Magazine in July. In the meantime, you can go to our website at afm47.org and log into the members only section to review the details.

I recently attended a performance of “An American in Paris” at the Pantages Theatre. It was a delightful production. There’s just something special about Gershwin! The singing and dancing were superb, but it was the music that made the evening! I’d like to congratulate Kathleen Robertson and Adriana Zoppo, violin; Paula Fehrenbach, cello; Steve Kujala, flute/piccolo; John Yoakum, clarinet; Dick Mitchell, flute/clarinet; Marissa Benedict, trumpet/flugelhorn; Andy Martin, trombone; Wade Culbreath, percussion; and David Witham, keyboard; for their skill, sensitivity, and artistry. For me the only disappointment was the lack of a live bass player. They are traveling with a keyboard bass! Shame! Shame! Shame! There oughta be a law...

May Day is upon us. It’s not only a celebration of Spring but also a worldwide celebration of workers’ rights. On May 1st we join thousands of our friends in other unions across the spectrum, as well as immigrants and citizens in a march from MacArthur Park to City Hall. We march in support of unions, for immigration rights, universal healthcare, Planned Parenthood, voting rights, protecting the environment, LGBT rights, the National Endowment for the Arts, and the Center for Disease Control, and, yeah, weed too! These are just a few of the takeaways that we are facing in the current political climate. Visit the 47 Blog to view photos and video from this year’s march.

One issue critical to every musician is healthcare. Local 47 is joining with the California Nurses Association, all California AFM Locals, and countless other labor unions, businesses, community and political organizations in supporting SB 562, the Healthy California Act. SB 562 will provide comprehensive medical, dental, vision, and hearing coverage for every Californians while cutting costs by eliminating billions of dollars in profits to private insurance companies. As of today, the bill has cleared the Senate Healthcare Committee and is headed to the Appropriations Committee. Please join us in supporting SB 562 by contacting your state senator and urging them to support the Healthy California Act. Go to HealthyCaliforniaAct.org for more information.

Until next time, thanks for listening. The arrival of Spring brings with it a burst of new growth and creativity. I hope you find inspiration in your soul and song in your heart.

Warm Regards,

Gary Lasley

AFM Local 47 Lifetime Achievement Awards

Los Angeles musicians celebrate a new tradition honoring esteemed members

More than 200 musicians gathered on the evening of April 24, 2017, to celebrate a new tradition honoring esteemed members of the Los Angeles musicians union at the inaugural American Federation of Musicians Local 47 Lifetime Achievement Awards.

Acclaimed musicians Gene Cipriano (woodwinds), Vincent DeRosa (horn), Louise DiTullio (flute), Carol Kaye (electric bass), and Dick Nash (trombone) were recognized during the ceremony, held at the AFM Local 47 Serena Kay & Earl Williams Auditorium in Hollywood, for their outstanding achievements and support of the artistic community of Los Angeles.

Guests filtered into the venue greeted by live jazz by the Leslie Baker Trio with Baker on bass, Chris Glik on keyboard, and Ken Park on drums. The Burnt To A Crisp Texas Smokehouse food truck was on site serving up down home Southern BBQ, and Graef wine was provided courtesy of Dennis Dreith. VIPs in attendance included April Williams, Executive Director, Musicians at Play who also served as stage director for the evening; Dennis Dreith, Administrator, AFM & SAG-AFTRA Fund; Marc Sazer, International President, Recording Musicians Association; Kim Roberts, Executive Director, Film Musicians Secondary Markets Fund; Ashley Irwin, President, Society of Composers & Lyricists; and Edythe Bronston, President, California Jazz Foundation.

AFM Local 47 President John Acosta and Vice President Rick Baptist served as masters of ceremony. Councilmember Mitch O'Farrell, 13th District, delivered introductory remarks and stressed the value musicians give to the community. Additional representatives from the City of Los Angeles included O'Farrell's deputy, Dan Halden; Albert Lord, Deputy to Councilmember Herb Wesson, 10th District; and Joel Lyle, Deputy to Councilmember Paul Koretz, 5th District. Dan Higgins presented for Gene Cipriano, Annie Bosler for Vincent DeRosa, Gayle Levant for Louise DiTullio, Chuck Berghofer for Carol Kaye, and Alan Kaplan for Dick Nash.

In addition to a beautiful crystal statuette, each honoree was also presented with a Proclamation from the City of Los Angeles on behalf of the 5th District from the office of Councilmember Koretz.

"The efforts of everyday working musicians who have created a meaningful and lasting impact on the artistic community are largely unknown to those outside of the music world," said AFM Local 47 President John Acosta. "Too often, these wonderfully talented artists remain unsung heroes. We are excited to begin this new tradition shedding a public spotlight in recognition of these most deserving musicians."

This kickoff event was the first of many planned future ceremonies that will highlight and recognize members of the Los Angeles musicians union.

Photos and honoree bios are posted at afm47.org/lifetimeawards.

A Message From the Local 47 Executive Board

To all members of the American Federation of Musicians Local 47:

Our contracts are the heart of our union. Whatever we achieve through collective action and collective bargaining is secured because management signs agreements. Our contracts allow us to make sure employers do what they are obligated to do. They raise the expectations of all musicians for pay, benefits, and professional treatment.

Recently, those contracts have been put at serious risk. Members of Local 47 are being asked to record music for major, well-funded projects without union contracts. If union contracts are made irrelevant by work done in the shadows, the floor for pay will drop for both union and non-union musicians. These employment practices are especially divisive and pernicious because they exert enormous pressure on individual union members.

We all know what it is like to wonder where your next call is going to come from or how you are going to pay your bills. No single musician can stop the forces that undermine our profession, but as a union we have always been able to push back.

We believe that it is now necessary to take action together. We call upon the Federation and other AFM Locals to unite with our membership in defense of our union and our contracts. In the coming months we will be launching a campaign to uphold our contracts, to recapture work being done in the shadows and to ensure that musicians can earn a livable wage working in Los Angeles.

Our goals are:

1. To ensure fair pay, benefits, and professional treatment for musicians.
2. To protect our union's ability to bargain, administer and uphold our contracts.
3. To bring more work under union agreements.

We, the Executive Board of AFM Local 47, are committed to building a stronger, more successful future together.

Healthy California Bill Passes Senate Healthcare Committee

We did it! SB 562 Passes First Committee Hearing!

On April 25 the Senate Health Committee voted to support SB 562 and guarantee healthcare for all Californians. Musicians join in celebrating this as the first important step on our road to making guaranteed healthcare a reality in the Golden State. The hearing followed a rally with over 1,000 supporters including nurses, community, business, workers, seniors, doctors and healthcare providers and advocates. Thank you to Senators Hernandez, Atkins, Monning, Mitchell, and Leyva for voting Yes on SB 562 and supporting healthcare as a human right!

But our work has just begun. We must continue to build our movement to win healthcare justice and we need your help.

Here are four things you can do to help us win guaranteed healthcare:

Chip in \$5, \$25 or \$250 to help pay for upcoming campaign activities to bring even more supporters to Sacramento to make sure our voices are heard! Today we had buses come from around the state, as far as Orange County to show support for the Healthy California Act. But the buses don't pay for themselves, any donation amount helps us bring even more supports back in may for important Sacramento actions!

Get Social! Ask your friends to join us at HealthyCA.org, and find us on Twitter and Facebook.

Get Involved! Find your local Regional Coordinator to join local meetings, trainings and join in local events to show your Senator it's time for SB 562.

Thank you for being a part of the movement to win the Healthy California Act. Together we had a huge win today and we look forward to making guaranteed healthcare a reality with you.

In Unity,

The HealthyCA Team

Searching for Mike Randall

Does anyone know the whereabouts of Mike Randall, a pianist and composer whose membership in AFM 47 lapsed 22 years ago?

I am writing a biography of screenwriter Ernest Lehman ("The King And I," "North By Northwest," "West Side Story," and "The Sound of Music," among others) and am trying to find Randall, who is probably in his late sixties or early seventies. He was a friend of Lehman's.

Anyone with information can contact me at 3322 Rowena Ave. #C, Los Angeles, CA 90027, (323) 661-7428 or at bluewombat134@startmail.com.

by Jay and Katherine Setar

Most musicians knew John Setar to be fine studio, stage, and casual musician (flute, clarinet, and sax), contractor, leader, and union member/committee member. Dad might have cited his television work with Mike Post and Pete Carpenter, the Steve Allen Westinghouse Show, and his work on the “Gravy Waltz” recording (which won the 1964 Grammy Award for Best Original Jazz Composition) as the highlights of his extensive career. However, we prefer to focus on our father as the kind, generous, self-made man who enriched the lives of those around him.

Dad’s colleagues probably knew him as the consummate professional— a very nice guy in a tough business. In his excellent book Leave It To Me... (p. 35), lifelong friend Donn Trenner (composer, conductor, piano) stated “John’s easy-going personality made him especially effective in dealing with television executives.” Those of us who lived with Dad knew how disheartened he was by unkind behavior; he worked hard to make sure the musicians always got their fair share. His more committed students were the happy recipients of his generosity: he never watched the clock, would always personally pick out their instruments, and constantly loaned out music, his own instruments, etc., to help his students succeed. Of his hundreds of students, Dad started several who went on to notable careers: the late Ray Reed, the late Emily Bernstein (who was John Williams’s first call), and film composer Brad Dechter (who rightly cites his father as his biggest influence). Dad routinely performed with former students Steve Carr, Cindy Bradley, and Jake Jacobsen; the latter two worked alongside Dad in the sax section in the Top Hat Big Band at the Las Hadas restaurant in Northridge—Dad’s last Big Band.

As adults, we were disappointed in discovering that not everyone was as generous as our parents. Dad was always giving with both hands: no amount was too much for tuition, lessons, etc. We both have warm childhood memories of tagging along with Dad on studio calls. Son Jay (drums) emphasizes that Dad was supportive of his jazz fusion and prog rock interests; Dad would often crash Jay’s bands’ rehearsals. Jay also recalls Dad pulling strings to allow him to sit behind Louis Bellson in concert. Occasionally Dad would comment, “I didn’t want you kids to have to work as hard as I did.” We’re glad that Dad lived long enough for us to understand what he meant.

John Setar was an embodiment of the American Dream: through perseverance, talent, and intelligence, Dad fashioned his life out of virtually nothing. On page 35 of Trenner’s book, he states that Dad “learned clarinet in school and then pick[ed] up the saxophone....” This is NOT how Dad got started in music.

Dad was born in 1924 in Nesquehoning, Pennsylvania to a family of oppressed deep-coal miners (and eventually tavern/hotel owners) of (mostly) Hungarian and Slovakian descent. Growing up during the Great Depression, he was unable to speak English when he started school. The Setar family was musical, and Dad’s first childhood gigs were playing czárdáses, polkas, and other folk music on the clarinet with his father. Dad’s first clarinet was a family instrument unfortunately built with the disused Albert fingering system – forcing him to relearn playing the clarinet with the standard Boehm system. Somehow Dad’s parents gave him private music lessons, commuting to New York; the Dorsey brothers’ father was among his earliest teachers. As a student, he helped establish the Hazleton High School Wildcats jazz band, and the Penn State University Campus Owls – the first jazz band at Penn State (formed by students). Majoring in science, Dad was the first Setar college graduate, earning his way by waiting tables and performing with the Owls.

Dad’s big break as a jazz musician came in 1945 with the Jess Stacy Band. Dad was a customer at the Lakewood [Pennsylvania] Dance Hall, where Stacy’s band was performing the band’s lead alto player became sick in New York City, so Stacy’s band arrived in Pennsylvania minus one sax. Overhearing their dilemma, and thinking (as a young college graduate) that he was “hot stuff,” Dad approached Stacy, saying, “I play alto. Should I go home and get my horn?” Because they were desperate, they allowed Dad to sit in with the band and eventually go on the road with them – and apprenticed him in jazz style.

For Dad, performing was an 80-year passion that consumed him until his final days. Characteristic of his drive and stubbornness, he had three rehearsals the week before he was hospitalized for the last time. Good-bye Daddy-o! We will miss you so much!

John Setar is survived by his wife, Mary; his two children, and three grandchildren. A private memorial was held in March.

Should I Have a 'Living Trust'

"Living" or revocable trusts are not just for the wealthy. A trust can provide for the management of your assets if you become ill and unable to handle your affairs, or if you pass away. The person(s) you choose can assume responsibility for your financial affairs in an accountable fashion, and without court supervision.

Another advantage of a living trust over a mere will, particularly where there is an estate in excess of one hundred fifty thousand dollars, is, quite simply, that wills are subject to Probate and trusts are not. If a Probate is required, statutory fees for attorneys and executors in California are among the highest in the country. For example, if your gross estate is $500,000, which would certainly include ownership of a moderate home in many parts of Los Angeles, the state authorizes the payment of fees and commissions totaling $52,000, plus the Court costs and related expenses. A substantial portion of these costs can be avoided through the proper establishment and operation of a living trust.

In our practice, we often see people who have estates larger than anticipated. High real estate values, even in the current market, often translate into a significant increase in estate assets. This real property, if not held in a trust, may be subject to probate, which could mean a drawn out and expensive Court procedure. The high cost of probate is not unwarranted. It is often a time consuming and unwieldy process. Even a simple Probate proceeding can take over a year in Los Angeles County.

Take the time to plan your estate while you can, and before you have to.

Debra Borda Steps Down From LA Philharmonic

New York Phil lures back longtime leader; Gail Samuel appointed acting president & CEO

Shockwaves reverberated through the music world with the announcement that longtime LA Philharmonic President and CEO Debra Borda is leaving Los Angeles after 17 years to return to the New York Philharmonic, reversing the switch she made nearly two decades ago.

Borda will remain as advisor to the LA Phil Board of Directors until June 1, 2017. She will replace Matthew VanBesien as president and CEO of the New York Philharmonic, which she ran in the 1990s, on Sept. 15.

Gail Samuel, executive director of the LA Phil since March 2015, has been named acting president and CEO.

Borda triumphantly ushered the LA Phil into the most celebrated building of the century, Walt Disney Concert Hall. She oversaw the transition of the conductor's baton from Esa-Pekka Salonen, the orchestra's former music director, to the dynamic, young Gustavo Dudamel. And with Dudamel, she helped establish the Youth Orchestra of Los Angeles, YOLA.

Gail Samuel

The LA Phil's centennial 2018-19 season is mostly planned. Dudamel's contract runs until 2022.

The LA Phil has not yet said how it plans to replace Borda.

Don't Let Congress Roll Back Regulations on Wall Street

by Damon Silvers, Director of Policy, AFL-CIO

Since 2011, the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau has returned $12 billion to families who were cheated by big banks, payday lenders and other predatory financial institutions.

So it's no surprise that Republican leaders in Congress—with the Trump administration's blessing—are moving to gut this critical watchdog and destroy its power to stop Wall Street executives from scamming working people.

Republican legislators are holding a hearing on a bill today that's the first in a number of attacks on the CFPB and other important regulations that have reined in the predatory practices that led to millions of people losing their homes and jobs during the 2008 financial crisis. We can't let them give even more power to Wall Street. Will you take a minute to call your senators right now and tell them to oppose any effort to gut the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau?

Click here to call or dial 888-789-9078 now to tell your senator to oppose any efforts to roll back regulations on Wall Street or gut the CFPB.

For the past six years, the CFPB has worked tirelessly to protect working people and hold big banks accountable for abuse. It's protected military members and their families from illegal foreclosures, shut down student loan "debt relief" scams and cracked down on illegal practices by big banks, like the Wells Fargo fake accounts scandal.

Without the CFPB, consumers will be vulnerable to the same deceptive and abusive practices that led to the 2008 financial crisis. We need to stand together and protect this vital agency—and the best thing you can do to help right now is pick up your phone and call your senator.

Click here to call and tell your senator to keep big banks and Wall Street in check and protect the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau!

Making a Difference One Bag at a Time

Millions of Americans live from one day to the next uncertain where their next meal will come from. This sad statistic reinforces the importance of the National Association of Letter Carriers' annual national Stamp Out Hunger® Food Drive, held the second Saturday of each May. This year's event will be held Saturday, May 13.

"Letter carriers see many of these folks along our routes each day," National Association of Letter Carriers, President Fredric Rolando said. "Our food drive can make a positive difference in the lives of those who have been dealt difficult hands."

This year marks the 25th anniversary of the national drive, Rolando noted. "Our work and our success will be just as crucial this year as ever, since the problem of hunger in this country shows little sign of going away," he said. Sponsored by the National Association of Letter Carriers, the drive has collected over 1.5 billion pounds of food in 10,000 cities since its inception 25 years ago.

How to Participate

Leave your non-perishable donation in a bag by your mailbox, and your letter carrier will deliver it to a local food bank. To find out how to volunteer at your local post office to sort food, visit nalc.org. For more information about the annual Letter Carriers' Food Drive effort in your community, ask your letter carrier, follow the drive on Twitter @StampOutHunger or go to nalc.org and find "Food Drive" under "Community Service."

Are All Eligible Participants Enrolled in the Fund's Life Insurance Benefit?

The Professional Musicians Local 47 and Employers' Health & Welfare Fund ("Fund") provides a $20,000* Life Insurance benefit to all Participants who have qualified for benefits. Completion of

Update your life insurance beneficiary form with the Musicians Health and Welfare

an enrollment form is not required and enrollment is automatic once the Fund confirms, after the close of the annual qualifying window (generally October 3rd of every year), that you have qualified for benefits based on the employer contributions made on your behalf in the prior qualifying year (generally October 2nd through October 3rd). Contributions in the qualifying year, determine eligibility for the following January through December. (i.e. employer contributions made during the period of October 3, 2015 through October 2, 2016, have determined eligibility for the period January 1, 2017 through December 31, 2017)

If you do qualify for benefits, we strongly recommend that you complete a beneficiary form, which can be found on the Fund's website pacfed-musicians.com - go to the "Forms" page and look for the Life Application/Beneficiary Form. Completing a beneficiary form now is the best way to avoid potential problems in the future.

The fact is that when you qualify for the Health benefits offered by the Fund, you also automatically qualify for the Prudential Life and Accidental Death and Dismemberment Insurance benefit. There is no enrollment or co-premium required for coverage through the Fund's Life and AD&D Insurance benefit program. Once you become eligible, based on employer contributions from the prior qualifying year, you are automatically enrolled in the Fund's Life and AD&D Insurance benefit program. This is an annual benefit, so you must attain eligibility each qualifying year to be covered by Fund's Life and AD&D Insurance benefit program.

If you have qualified for benefits through the Fund for coverage during calendar year 2017 and do not remember completing a beneficiary form or if you've had a change in your life this year (marriage, divorce, birth of a child), we again strongly recommend that you submit a new beneficiary form. When you have completed your beneficiary form, mail it to:

Multiple-Card AFM Member Rebate

According to Article 8, Section 7(a)(ii) of the AFM Bylaws, the rebate is only available to members who held simultaneous memberships in three or more Locals for the full calendar year. Members will not be given rebates for dual memberships.

Under the rebate program, membership in a base of two Locals must be established in order for a member to qualify for a rebate. The International Secretary/Treasurer's office has determined that a musician's membership in his or her "Home Local" and the subsequent Local of longest tenure shall be designated as the two base Locals. The Secretary/Treasurer's office will then rebate the appropriate per capita dues for membership in the third Local and any other Local(s) beyond three to which a member belonged for the entire previous calendar year.

To petition for a Multiple-Card Member Rebate, members should fill out the form and return it to the Secretary/Treasurer's office together with copies of all their paid-up membership cards, receipts of canceled checks for annual dues from all Locals, or a letter from each Local stating that the petitioner was a member in good standing of the Locals for the full year prior.

No rebates will be issued until the Secretary/Treasurer's office verifies that petitioning members held continuous membership and per capita dues have been paid in three or more Locals for the full prior year. Rebates will be issued after Jan. 1.
